Jason Meyer, Violin
Paul Bisaccia, Piano

Jason Meyer born in Springfield, Mass, manifested a serious talent for violin, piano and composing at age nine. He studied composition with Arnold Franchetti (a disciple of Richard Strauss) Norman Dinnerstein, and the violin with Renato Bonacini at the Hartt School, University of Hartford, where he graduated with a double Bachelors Degree in violin and composition. Two years later he received his Masters at New England Conservatory in Boston where he also studied with Eric Rosenblith, chamber music with Leonard Shure (a Schnabel protégé), and Rudolph Kolisch (associate of Schönberg, Webern, Bartok and Korngold). He has also studied at the Chigiana in Sienna with Luigi Dallapiccola (composition) and Salvatore Accardo (violin). At the present his career as concert artist and composer, he has arranged music to be heard by larger audiences such of great masterpieces such as Respighi's «Il Tramonto» for piano trio and contralto and Schönberg's «Tranfigured Night» for piano trio. Jason just released a new CD with award winning and famous for American music, pianist Paul Bisaccia, (PaulBisaccia.com) of «Franck Sonata», pieces arranged by Mr Meyer of George Gershwin and 2 works composed by himself.
