11:15 am Hors D'oeuvres

Speaker: DEBORAH VADAS LEVISON

Author of the newly released book

"The Crate: A Story of War, a Murder, and Justice"

Debbie's life has two parts: the first in Canada, where she attended the Royal Conservatory of Music and University of Toronto, and the second in Connecticut, as a writer and publicist.

She's been published in local, regional and national media. Her feature on the ill-fated M.S. St. Louis earned an Award of Excellence from the Society of Professional Journalists. She's also a recipient of the A. O. Samuels Young Leadership Award.

As a child of Holocaust survivors, she has recounted their miraculous journeys in articles, lectures, and two keynote addresses to the American Red Cross. Now, their stories are preserved in her award-winning debut book, THE CRATE: A Story of War, a Murder, and Justice.

Visit her at www.debbielevison.com.
